

Eek! A Mouse!

Tell where the mouse is.
Circle the correct word in each sentence.

The mouse is (in, on) the book.

The mouse is (in, on) the shoe.

The mouse is (in, on) the table.

The mouse is (in, on) the rug.

The mouse is (in, on) the hole.

The mouse is (in, on) the box.

Milk and Cookies

Read what these monsters like to eat. Use the words and or good to finish the sentences.

I like to eat milk _____ cookies.

They taste _____.

I like to eat bananas _____ peanut butter.

They taste _____.

I like to eat spinach _____ spaghetti.

They taste _____.

I like to eat ice cream _____ mustard.

They taste _____.

Draw foods you like to eat and finish the sentences.

I like to eat _____.

They taste _____.

Yes or No?

Look at each picture. Read the question. Write yes or no to answer the question.

Do you see a bird? _____

Do you see a rock? _____

Do you see a flower? _____

Do you see a fish? _____

Do you see a turtle? _____

Do you see a bus? _____

Pig Tales

Write the word of on the lines to finish the story.

This is the story _____ the three little pigs.

One pig built a house _____ straw.

The big, bad wolf blew it down.

One pig built a house _____ sticks.

The big, bad wolf blew it down.

One pig built a house _____ bricks.

The big, bad wolf huffed and puffed.

He could not blow the brick house down.

And inside _____ it, sat three smart pigs!

